Kim And Kanye Split

Kim and Kanye's split has been confirmed by inside sources earlier on this year. The reason for this split is thought to have been a series of events which have led up to this point. Many fans were shocked and saddened by the recent revelations that Hollywood's power couple are no more. It is believed that the four young children have been shielded from the fallout by mutual agreement. One of the reasons for this shock split was Kanye's twitter rant about the Kardashian family earlier on this year which was very public since most people were talking about this shock split. Kanye said in his twitter rant about Kris Jenner saying "Kris Jong Un" and telling Kris that she isn't allowed near his children. Rumours have been flying around that Kim has moved on from Kanye West after two months and is seeing 52-year-old CNN host Van Jones. Van Jones also in 218 filed for divorce from his wife Jana Carter after being together for 13 years. Kim Kardashian has not confirmed anything about the new love interest but they have been spending quite a bit of time with each other. Whether Kim speaks up about this rumoured fling or her filling for divorce we may never know. The couple want to keep it private as much as they can since they have children together.

On the last season of Keeping up with the Kardashians it shows a preview of Kim crying and also her talking about the Kanye twitter rant situation. Fans are waiting to hopefully hear how everything happened on the upcoming episodes of the show since the Kardashian are known for spilling the tea with their reality show which should be exciting for fans to watch. Kanye West has not spoken out about anything but inside reports suggest that he isn't getting on that well since Kim filed for a divorce.

JESY NELSON QUITS LITTLE MIX

OH

Jesy Nelson quits Little Mix citing reasons of burn out, hate on social media and her mental health suffering due to the fame of being in a high profiled girl group. It's thought that she is thinking of branching out on her own and thanks her fans for the love and support over when little mix started. The rest of little mix have performed and appeared on chat shows without Jesy. The rest of the girls have a new single coming out with female rapper Saweetie. The girl group are adapting to being a trio. Jade Thirlwall reveals that the girl group are going to therapy due to Jesy leaving. Little Mix are just happy about their new single which is coming out and will continue strong for all of their fans.

DEMI LOVATO RETURNS!!!

I'm back

Demi Lovatoe has recently released a documentary called Dancing with the devil in which she talks about her drug abuse, alcohol abuse and dealing with fame as a child and how she overcame three strokes and an overdose in 2018. In 2018 she was in the middle of filming another documentary but stopped due to her overdose. Demi returns to tell her side of the story which fans cant wait to watch. She has also released an album called Dancing with the devil which has some big stars on it including Ariana Grande, Saweetie and Sam Smith. She is definitely making sure that with her documentary she is letting everybody know who the real her is and she is ready for her comeback this year.

COOL!

Gaming is one of the most popular hobbies that teenagers like to do. Gaming is not playing with your friends online it is also a source of income for gamers. A lot of people think Gaming is the future and the way forward and in many ways it is for some people, especially the younger generation.

A lot of teens have started gaming because that is how you can make money. Some of the ways you can make money from gaming is testing games, streaming your gameplay, create your own gaming website and uploading your gaming content to YouTube. These are just a few but the most popular one is live streaming.

Some famous YouTube gamers that have made it are PewdiePie, Ninja, VanossGaming, TommyInnit and the whole faze clan. These are just a few of the many gamers that have made it big time. TommyInnit has come into the game more recently since he is only 17 years old and already has a massive following on Youtube.

Many games have already come out this year but there are still a few that are coming out or have been said to be coming out in 2022. On the next page it will show a couple of games that will be coming out this year that are some fan favourites.

Hogwarts Legacy is a new game that is coming out in 2022. You can get this game on X Box One, PlayStation 5, Microsoft Windows and Xbox Series. Hogwarts legacy is an open world video game set in the 1800's in the wizard world as we all know as Harry Potter. Many gamers are excited to play this game since it's a game based off a lot of people's childhood Harry Potter. There have been two games about Harry Potter before but nothing where you could play different quest which is what this game allows you to do.

Call of Duty is one of the most popular Video games ever. Many Call of Duty fans have been talking about the rumours for the new release of this game this year. Call of duty 2021 is meant to be the biggest franchise for the next entry of the worlds. Hopefully the game will launch this year sometime before Christmas. Fans are thinking that it will come out in October/November. The game will be available on Microsoft windows, X box Series, PlayStation 5 and X box one. Nothing apart from what year it may come out in has been confirmed. There have been rumours flying around that the game will return back to a world war 2 setting which are getting people excited for if the rumours are true. Only time will tell when the release date is announced on what the storyline is about. Unlike some games they don't announce what year it may be released but this game was good in the sense that Sledgehammer Games.

Fifa 22 is a very anticipated video game for this year. Ea sports have not yet released a confirmation date but fans will be guessing on past release dates when Fifa 22 could be released. People think that it could be released on the 8th October 2021 which would be a full year since Fifa 21 was released. The video game will be released on PC, PS4, PS5, X box one, X box series and Nintendo Switch. It will be interesting to see if PS5 and X box series X versions are marketed better.

So are you looking forward to Fifa 22?

Fashion Baby

You teens have definitely been bringing back fashion trends during lockdown which is a really cool thing to do. Tik Tok especially has been helping teens express themselves a lot more with their outfits. A lot of trends have been brought back

2000s fashion

being the most popular one and y2k fashion

which is a little similar to that. It's good that a social media app is helping a lot of younger people out there ex press their style freely without feeling judged, Social media also helps teens help each other out on what shops to look at and what style that are trending right now. On-line shopping has also been even more popular during lockdown and made a lot of teenagers broke from spending a bit too much money. During the pandemic teenagers have started their own clothing, shoe and jewellery business companies to make their own money which has been going well for a lot of people. Since every teen has been stuck inside for the past year it has been a good way to show their creative side and alsoto start a business at a young age. This magazine is not only showing you the latest fashion trends but you will be able to see the best and worst dressed at the award shows this year, but you will also be able to see outfit inspiration sent in by

who doesn't love it right?

2000s fashion came back from teenagers making tik toks showing their fashion style off which then started to get more popular by the day. 2000s fashion has a lot of color, glitter and denim to it. Bringing back old trends and 2000s style is nostalgic for some people and you dont need to be a teenager to do these fashion trends it can be for everyone.

A couple of other pieces that make up early 2000s fashion for you to try are cropped hoodies, flaired jeans, jean skirts, tank tops and off the shoulder tops. These are just a few of the many items you can look for online. A lot more stores on sites like Etsy and Depop are selling early 2000s fashion which shows how popular this trend is coming back.

Y2K

This first Y2K outfit was trending on twitter two weeks ago because of how super cute it looked on the girl. Y2K uses quite a bit of denim in the clothing which you can see from the patterned denim skirt and denim bucket hat with little frills hanging from it. The cute pink crop top goes very well with the denim skirt and hat since the top is hot pink and hot pink always stands out. The pink glasses add a nice touch to the Y2K theme going on here.

This outfit is definitely a day to day outfit. The cow print jeans are very cute and in style since animal print jeans are really coming back into fashion. The choice of top goes nice with the bottoms and it doesn't clash with the cow print. She is keeping things minimal with the top which is nice since not everything needs to be over the top. This outfit definitely represents Y2K fashion trends that have been going around on social media.

SO FETCH

Y2K is not only about different patterns and bold colours it can also be where the clothing colour is matching. For example, this girl is wearing a blue plaid skirt with a blue cropped t shirt which goes really nicely together. Even though the skirt and top is both blue it's not boring and it kind of makes it look a lot nicer. This is definitely a going out outfit because that top is to die for.

Outfit inspo

Rachel sent in this super cute photo of a summer outfit that she is planning to wear this summer. You can get the summer dress from New Look which is only £12. The green shoulder bag is from Depop for only £4. This outfit is definitely cute and well matched together for a cute summer outfit.

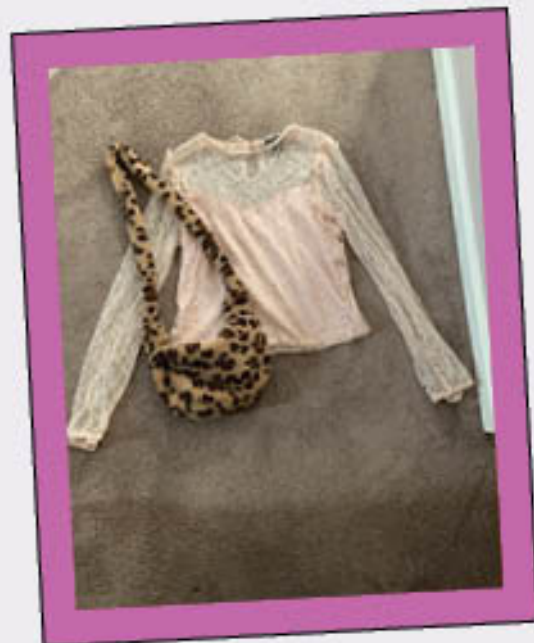

99% Angel

Super Cute

This lovely outfit was put together by Jessica. The cute summer crop top is from Shein for only £4 which is really cheap. The high waisted denim jeans are from Brandy Melville for £16. This cute outfit would be great for the summer when it starts to get hot. This outfit has definitely been inspired by the recent Y2K fashion trend going round for teenagers.

This top and bag inspo was sent by Sarah from lovely Newcastle. This light pink going out top can really be paired with anything. The pink top is from New Look for £8.99, and the cute y2k fluffy shoulder bag is from Ali express which is an online website that sells Y2K and early 2000s outfits. This piece would be really nice to wear for a dinner date or just hanging out with friends for the day.

Fashion awards

Best Dressed

OMG!!

Mabel stunned fans with this light green cut out dress at the Brit awards this year. Her makeup and the dress reminded fans of early 2000's red carpet looks. She definitely snapped with this look.

Harry Styles went all out for the Brit awards this year. He was trending on twitter for how gorgeous his brown suite looked on the red carpet.

Worst Dressed

Olivia Rodrigo was named one of the worst dressed celebs at the Brit awards this year. Teenagers said that for her first award show she should have done worn something exciting and not a dress that looks like it's for prom.

Addison Rae was said to be one of the worst dressed female celebrity at the MTV award show a couple of weeks ago. Fans said that the top looked like a bikini top. Addison has only been on a few red carpets and it does take time adjusting with red carpet looks.

TV and film

There hasn't been much to do with cinema the last year since production was shut down for lockdown. A lot of the movie's that were meant to come out last year were pushed back to this year because all cinemas are closed and that's how Hollywood makes its money. With TV shows it's different because with TV shows not a lot of people have been talking about if shows were going back into production or they were going to wait a bit longer.

Stranger Things is a really popular TV show that was renewed for its fourth season. Last year the cast and crew of Stranger Things were in production but due to lockdown in America they had to cancel production for the mean time. This meant that they would have to delay it a bit longer which some fans were upset by but understanding, however earlier on this year they released a little snippet of the new trailer which hopefully means they are done and season 4 of Stranger Things should come out some time this year!!

COMING SOON

A brand new TV show that is getting a lot of people hyped is the new Loki Marvel show coming to Disney Plus on 9th June 2021. Loki is definitely a fan favourite in the Marvel universe so it was really good to give him his own TV show. The actor Tom Hiddleston plays the role really well and it will be exciting to see what this new show is about and if they carry on with the show after season 1.

Okay Wow fast and furious 9 is coming this year. Who can believe that this is the ninth movie of the franchise. Two leading characters are returning to the ninth movie after being gone for a while. The character Han makes a shocking return when everybody thought he died in Tokyo Drift. Also Mia returns Dom's sister to take on her supposedly brother played by Jhon Cena. Many fans were confused that Dom and Mia had a brother nobody knew about, also the fact that John who knows you will have to wait to find out if there is another one.

Venom let there be carnage trailer came out about two weeks ago so it is fairly new. A lot of people were surprised by this trailer since it was meant to come out a while ago. It has not been confirmed when the release date is yet but hopefully it is this year. The new movie has the same actor playing Venom who is Tom Hardy and there is a new actor in it Woody Harrelson which has got a lot of fans excited for him playing what it seems to be the bad guy from the trailer.

Black Widow was a very anticipated movie which was meant to come out last year in May. This movie will be the first ever female superhero movie for Marvel. A lot of fans were debating on this movie saying that it probably should have been done sooner since Black Widow played by Scarlett Johansson has been in the Marvel franchise for quite a bit first starring in Iron Man. Marvel have released a date since cinemas are starting to open and that is 9th July. This will be the 8th time Scarlett is playing the Black Widow.

TIK TOK

Tik Tok was created in China and used to be called Musically.

Tik Tok has been the biggest social media platform over the last year. Tik Tok came really popular for teenagers during lockdown since there hasn't been anything else to do. Tik Tok allows teens to express themselves and to show their creative side. With Tik Tok you can do comedy skits, make up dances, show off your singing skills and even if you are starting a business promote it on Tik Tok to gain some more customers. The app has also produced a lot of young social media influencers. Some of them are Addison Rae, Charli D'Amelio, Noah Beck and Michael Le. Even celebrities like The Rock, Will Smith and Jessica Alba are using Tik Tok can be for everybody and is just a fun app to pass time.

Tik Tok has 689 million monthly active users worldwide which is massive Tik Tok is being used around the world by people of all ages. Tik Tok is an app where you can go on there to watch just one video and then end up getting lost for a couple of hours.

Will Tik Tok still be the biggest buzz in a couple of years time or will it fade away like Musically did? Who will know.

RENEGADE

The 16 year old Charli D'Amelio is the biggest star on the app. She grew to fame last year and is still going strong to this day. Charli has over 100 Million followers on Tik Tok which is amazing. She is a professional dancer and grew from making dances on Tik Tok. Charli said that she just did it for fun creating Tik Tok's with friends and all of a sudden she started to get a gaining.

Micahel Le is a 20-year-old famous dancer on Tik Tok who creates new dances and content for people to try out and recreate he also remakes tik tok dances that other influencers try out.

Michael Le has 16 million followers on tik tok making him the most followed dancer on Tik Tok. He grew to fame last year during the pandemic.

BAD BLEEP

Addison Rae the 19 year old is the second most popular tik toker following Charli D'Amelio. Addison is very proud of her success on tik tok since she is now starring in a movie called he's all that" and has loads of upcoming projects for her fans to see soon. Addison Rae said in a recent interview that she never intended on becoming tik tok famous it was all just a bit of fun.

The 19 year old Noah Beck grew to fame earlier last year mostly for his looks. He is one of the most talked about influencers and is dating another popular tik toker Dixie D'Amelio. Noah Beck is recently starring in a show for the Sway House that he is apart of. Noah has a couple of projects coming up that he says fans will love when they come out.

Life after Lockdown

A lot of teenagers have been stuck inside during lockdown not really knowing what to do since everything is shut because of lockdown. You teens will be looking and keeping an eye out for things to do with friends and family since being stuck inside for a year and we are here to help.

One thing that has opened up because of lockdown is Pgl. Pgl is a place where families can get away to escape for a bit. It has loads of different cool activities you can do like the big swing, rock climbing, sensory trail and sailing. There are way more cool activities that Pgl have to offer which you can just enjoy doing with your family and friends during the half term, or whenever you can get away for the weekend. PGL is a place where teenagers can enjoy some quality time with their parents. It also can be a place where you can hang out with friends maybe go on a mini holiday.

A couple of other places that have been trending on Tik Tok are Camden Market and the cable cars in London. All over Tik Tok teenagers have been saying that the food stalls at Camden market are something that people need to try. With Camden market you can have whatever since there are dessert's, lunches and dinner stalls there. The food that is sold at Camden looks delicious, so definitely if you have come go out there with your friends or partner for a date.

The other place that was recommended on Tik Tok was the cable cars in London which goes over the River Thames and the Emirates royal docks. The cable cars are £6 per person so it isn't an expensive activity to do with your friends and family for a day out in London. These two places that have been recommended by teenagers are trending all over Tik Tok and Twitter which is telling on how fun both of these places must be to visit.

FESTIVAL TIME

Wireless has announced that it is going forward this year since last year it was cancelled due to Covid. Wireless will be held in South London which not too many people are happy about. The line-up for the festival was announced three weeks ago. There was a lot of talk about the line-up since all three days together only had 3 female artists playing. The three female artists that are playing are City Girls, Doja Cat and Meg the Stallion. During lockdown there has been loads of new female artists that have come out that could have performed but it just seemed to be male artists that they have chosen to perform. The festival is on the 10th, 11th and 12th of September so grab your tickets now.

Park life was the next festival that released a statement that they are moving forward with their event. This got a lot of people excited since Park life is a popular festival to go to. Park Life was one of the most talked about UK Festivals this year since the line-up was released there are loads of exciting artist on there with UK rapper Dave headlining his first ever festival. The festival will take place on the 11th and 12th of September and is being held at Heaton Park, Manchester. Park Life is a festival you can't camp at so you will need to book a hotel and get the bus that goes to the location.

Reading/Leeds festival was definitely the most talked about festival this year. This was because of the pricing and line-up for the tickets. A lot of people were annoyed with how much the tickets were since the line-up wasn't good. The ticket price for Reading was £240 and the Leeds ticket price was £230. Mostly teenagers go to this festival which was why they were annoyed by the pricing. A lot of people missed out on the festival because since being in lockdown people won't be working which meant that they didn't have that much money to but these tickets hopefully tickets will be less expensive when they do a resale. Some popular artists that are playing are Stormzy, Post Malone and Mabel.
